

Some Hints for using the Public Transport to Reach EPFL

- We were informed on short notice that the metro M1 from EPFL to the city center (Flon) – including opposite direction - is not working during the conference week (starting July 15). They use the summer break of EPFL to undertake some heavy maintenance works (bad luck that it hits us).
- The public transport will replace the metro M1 by a bus called bus M1. It also runs from Flon to EPFL and back. If your hotel is in the city center close to Flon, or if you can reach the Flon conveniently, it is best to use this bus.
- If your hotel is close to Lausanne station (Continental, Alpha Premier, Elite, Agora, A la gare) there is also an alternative: to take the train to the station of Renens (covered by the same ticket as you get from the hotel), and then to use the metro M1 to EPFL. If you do so, you may save some minutes (see table below).
- If your hotel is below Lausanne station, half way to Ouchy (Carlton, Savoy,) you still have the possibility to take the bus 25 from the station Délice, and then to change at Bourdonette Nord to the bus M1. Note the bus goes every 10 minutes, while the metro M2 from the same place leaves every 5 to 6 minutes to the station and Flon.
- If your hotel is at Ouchy (Angleterre, Au port, Aulac, château d'Ouchy, Mövenpick) it is best to walk to the metro station Ouchy and take M2 for the Flon, and the bus M1.
- The Youth Hostel is best served by bus 25.
- It is very practical to have the application “Mobile CFF” on your mobile phone. It is a time table for the complete Swiss Public Transport System, and gives you the best or fastest connection between 2 stations or stops.
